"The Busy Corner."

Always the Best of Everything for the Least Money.

Remnants Are The Leading Features

Every Friday at the Busy Corner. Go way back and look into the past, and see who is responsible for these Friday Remnant Days and we'll get the credit. A good thing is bound to have imitators. Otherwise it would not be a success. We shall try to make tomorrow as attractive in Remnant specials as we know how. One that will attract and detract from all others.

A Phenomenal Offering of Dress Goods Remnants.

A SACRIFICE WHICH WOULD SEEM BEYOND BELIEF, BUT NEVERTHELESS AS TRUE AS GOSPEL.

Fine Domestic and Imported Woollens, short pieces, wooded out from our regular stock of woollen dress goods—in all, perhaps, 2,000 yards, representing All-wool Novelties, Plaids, Checks, Plaid-back Suitings, Venetian Cloths, Cashmeres, Serges, Cheviots, Fancy Granites, Henriettes, Camelhair Serge, Storm Serge, and a full line of Evening Woollens; they come in colors as well as black; the lengths are suitable for waists, skirts, and mostly for children's dresses. These goods sold in the piece from 40c to $1.50 per yard. Your choice is offered at the most sacrificing price of per yard.

Threatening weather. Threatening for our friends the casuals folk over New York way. William Wickham Smith in Washington to whisper something in the ear of Attorney General Knox, and then let loose the floods of condemnation on the ingenious gentlemen responsible for the loss of millions of dollars in Japanese silk duties. Thank Heavens, we don't live in a town where cupidity is rampant. Threatening, also, for one Isaac Lobe Straus, who sulked in his tent while the German chariot was rolling triumphantly to the modern Olympia on Capitol Hill. Well, those who won't ride in the band-wagon are in danger of being run over by the same, and being run over isn't the pleasantest sensation we wot of. And most threatening in China, where the practically applied policy of no-good-missionaries—except dead-missionaries pursued by General Tung Fu Hsiang—is to be summarily revoked. The Empress suggests that the best way to bring this about is to furnish the general with the proper implements for the preparation of that delectable dish, hari-kari, and let him do the rest. Hearings on the Groat Bill. The Committee on Agriculture yesterday set Monday, January 13, for the hearing to be given to dairy representatives on the Groat bill. The balance of the week will be devoted to hearing the representatives of the oleomargarine industry in opposition to the bill, and January 20 and 21 are to be at the disposal of the dairy people, should they desire to offer any evidence in rebuttal.

Women's Suffrage Meeting. The Women's Suffrage Association of the District of Columbia will hold an open meeting at Scottish Rite Hall at 8 o'clock this evening. Judge Fletcher, of Idaho, will deliver an address, and Mrs. Ellen Powell Thompson will submit her report on the Minneapolis convention.

Mrs. Daingerfield's Funeral Held. The funeral of Mrs. Effie Nicholson Daingerfield was held at St. Paul's Roman Catholic Church, Fifteenth and V Streets northwest, this morning at 10:30 o'clock. The services were conducted by Father Mackin. The body was then removed to Mount Oliver Cemetery, where the interment was made. The following persons served as pallbearers: Messrs. Guy Barrett, Frederick May, John M. Johnson, Reginald Nicholson, Judge J. K. M. Norton, and Julian T. Dyer.

Thrown From His Bicycle. Albert Cochran, colored, twenty-two years old, was taken to the Garfield Hospital last night in an unconscious condition, the result of being knocked from a bicycle which he was riding. The accident occurred at the corner of Ninth and T Streets northwest in a collision with car 1011 of the Metropolitan line.

The physicians at the hospital quickly revived him and declared that his injuries were of a minor nature. Cochran lives at 1410 Madison Street northwest.

$1.25 to Baltimore and Return, Via B. & O. R. R. Saturday and Sunday, January 11 and 12.

Small Fire of Unknown Origin. A fire of mysterious origin occurred last night shortly before midnight at 49 B Street southeast, occupied by John W. Green and owned by Representative Hitt. There had been no fire in the room, which was the back room on the third floor. The last person to leave it went out about 8 o'clock. When the firemen arrived in response to an alarm from box 516 the centre of the floor was ablaze and had nearly burned through to the ceiling below. Extinguishers quickly subdued the flames. The damage is estimated at about $50, covered by insurance.

Real Estate Transactions. John D. Croissant and Galen L. Tait, trustees, yesterday sold to Lizzie Zeigler for $300, lot 9, block 22, in the first addition of American University Park, near the Zaida Penton, for $600, lot 12, block 12, of American University Park.

Blam L. Lammie and wife have sold to Redford W. Walker, lots 48, 49 and 50, in Lyon's subdivision of square 1270, being improved property on the south side of Q Street, between Valley and Thirtieth Streets. The consideration was not named.

The District of Columbia has sold to Mary A. Page, sublot 18, square east of 1264.

Aged Colored Minister Ill. The Rev. Sandy Alexander, who is ill at his home on Dunbar Avenue, is the oldest living colored minister in the District, being over ninety years of age. Until a comparatively recent date he was in active service at the First Baptist church here. He is at present a victim of a paralytic stroke. In his early days he was a servant of Daniel Webster, and takes much pleasure in relating incidents in that statesman's stirring career.

On the death of Clement Beckett, a few weeks ago, he became the oldest colored man in Georgetown.

Minor Note of Interest. Last year was one of the most successful years of the Farmers and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown. Its stock, the par value of which is $10, brought $30 a few days ago.

Mr. Charles A. Upman is seriously ill at his home 3448 P Street.

It is noted that the facilities on the Great Falls Electric Road, are extremely limited at present.

$1.25 to Baltimore and Return, Via B. & O. R. R. Saturday and Sunday, January 11 and 12, 1902, good returning until following Monday. Good on all trains except Royal Limited.

Repairs to Garnet School. The Superintendent of Repairs has reported to the District Commissioners that the cost of repairs upon the Garnet School building is estimated at $50, and he requests that the company carrying the insurance on the building be requested to arrange for defraying the expense of renewing the damaged woodwork.

Rare Remnant Gleanings.

Our interpretation of the word "Remnants" is clearly understood—as well as our rigid rule of clearance every Friday. Broken lots—tossed and tumbled goods—slow selling lines—all are classed under the one heading—and prices are put on them that make sure of speediest exit. It is, therefore, always an attractive occasion. But especially so at this time. Mid-January is devoted to stock righting and stock leveling. This means an unusual amount of merchandise turned into the Remnant Channels. The half cannot be told in detail. Believe every word of our advertising—for every statement is absolutely lived up to.

DISGRACED THE UNIFORM. Judge Kimball Sternly Lectures Four Disorderly Soldiers.

"You young men ought to have too much regard for the uniform you wear to get drunk and disgrace it," thundered Judge Kimball when Herman Grow, Charles Leech, Frank Toner, and Frederick Schenck, soldiers, each about twenty-two years of age, were brought up in the Police Court yesterday, charged with being disorderly at the Salvation Army Baracks.

"Your honor," said a sergeant of the company, "these young men have been quartered in a little town in New York where there are no police and where they could do about as they pleased, and forgot that they were in a city where strict regulations prevail."

"That's no excuse for them," replied the judge sternly. "This is the capital of the greatest nation, the most beautiful city on earth. It is teach them that they must behave themselves here. I want that uniform myself once. I have reverence for it and am pained to see it dragged in the dust through whisky and carousing. Five dollars each."

The quartette went to the workhouse to spend fifteen days.

SHOT BY HIS COMPANION. Colored Boy Victim of an Accident While on a Gunning Expedition.

Walter Tyler, colored, is at the Washington Asylum Hospital, suffering from a severe gunshot wound in the right knee. He is eighteen years old and his home is on the Bowen Road, beyond Anacostia.

While out gunning Monday afternoon with Richard West, colored, the latter's gun was accidentally discharged as he stooped to cross a gully. The injured youth was hastily removed to the hospital, where he has since remained. No arrest was made, as the affair was entirely accidental.

The following deaths for twenty-four hours were reported to the Health Office up to noon today: Sarah A. Collins, 83 years; Samuel N. Hoyt, 81 years; Mattilda Webster, 68 years; John Graff, 67 years; Michael Barry, 62 years; Joseph Henry Wyland, 52 years; Euphemia N. Dangerfield, 50 years; George May's Slaughter, 38 years; Jennie Young, 27 years; Hayes Newby, 25 years; Philip Jackson, 22 years; John C. Fenwick, 18 years; Lewis Brown, 16 years; Matthew Taylor Pollock, Jr., 1 year; Beatrice L. Cooke, 18 months; Charles H. Dottery, 10 months; Henry Everett, 9 months; Richard C. George, 7 weeks; Mary Delaney, 13 days; infant of Frances Windfield, 8 days; infant of Orla Brooks, 6 days; infant of Lucy Gunn, 1 day; infant of Rachel Young, 1 day.

A Clearance of Odd Lots in Men's Suits.

Every now and then we go through our stock, match up the lots, pick out the odd sizes—the ones, twos and threes of a kind—bunch them into one large lot on a separate table, and then ask you to pick at a certain price. This time the price is very inviting—

$9.75

There are mixtures, checks and stripes, in Cassimeres, Cheviots, Tweeds and Worsted. Many of them are $20 and $25 Suits. Most of them are Suits that sold for $15 and $18. Of course, not all sizes in any one style, but every size in the entire lot. These are the facts of the offering clearly stated. Not another word is necessary, for you know what it means to get Parker-Bridget Clothing at such a reduction.
